

PRIORITIES II Deuteronomy 5:16-21

www.muncherian.com/ss-possession.html

5:1-15 Love God supremely

5:16-21 Love others _____

1. Choose to honor your parents
2. Value the lives of others as you value your own
3. Be committed to the sanctity of marriage
4. Respect others by respecting what they possess
5. Sanctify truth in all your relationships
6. Desire God's best for others

TAKING IT HOME...

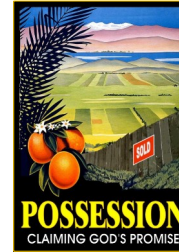

In Philippians 2:1-11, the Apostle Paul uses Jesus' coming, living, and dying for us as the supreme example of loving others (us) sacrificially (especially verses 3-8). Read through Paul's example and list the ways that Jesus demonstrated loving sacrifice.

Admittedly Jesus sets a very high standard and none of us is God. However, are there things Jesus did that could be a part of how you treat others?

Consider the relationships listed above (#'s 1-6 from Deuteronomy 5:16-21). How could you apply the qualities of sacrificial love that Jesus demonstrated to the relationships you are in?

Some really good news is that we are not alone in loving others sacrificially. As we choose to love God supremely we open up our lives to the work of His Spirit within us. Ask God to help you love Him more supremely and to love others more sacrificially.

Message Notes

PRIORITIES II Deuteronomy 5:16-21

www.muncherian.com/ss-possession.html

5:1-15 Love God supremely

5:16-21 Love others _____

1. Choose to honor your parents
2. Value the lives of others as you value your own
3. Be committed to the sanctity of marriage
4. Respect others by respecting what they possess
5. Sanctify truth in all your relationships
6. Desire God's best for others

TAKING IT HOME...

In Philippians 2:1-11, the Apostle Paul uses Jesus' coming, living, and dying for us as the supreme example of loving others (us) sacrificially (especially verses 3-8). Read through Paul's example and list the ways that Jesus demonstrated loving sacrifice.

Admittedly Jesus sets a very high standard and none of us is God. However, are there things Jesus did that could be a part of how you treat others?

Consider the relationships listed above (#'s 1-6 from Deuteronomy 5:16-21). How could you apply the qualities of sacrificial love that Jesus demonstrated to the relationships you are in?

Some really good news is that we are not alone in loving others sacrificially. As we choose to love God supremely we open up our lives to the work of His Spirit within us. Ask God to help you love Him more supremely and to love others more sacrificially.

Message Notes