(verses 4-6)
2. _____ HEART
(verses 7-9)

TAKING IT HOME...

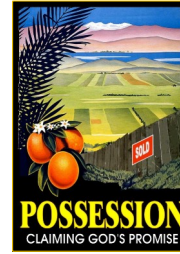

Consider three essential elements of parenting...

Matthew 3:17 (loving): Father's need to communicate clearly and consistently their love for their children and their children's mother. How often do you praise your children for doing things well? Or, express affection verbally? Or, carefully listen to your children express their concerns? Or, talk with your wife about your child's development?

Proverbs 22:6 (coaching): The shaping of a child's character is a lifelong process of effective discipline. How often do you do things with your child? Or, schedule time with your children? Or, volunteer at your child's school? What are your child's unique character qualities?

John 5:19 (modeling): Parents are living daily the values and behaviors they are passing on to their children. Do your children know what to expect from you? Do you model the behavior you want to see in your children? How often do you read Scriptures with your children? Are you level-headed in a crisis situation?

The words we speak, the instructions we give, the hundreds of ways each day we communicate to our children, "Follow me" all starts from your heart. How's your heart? It is never too late to surrender your life to God and follow Him with all your heart.
