(1) What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? (2) By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? (3) Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? (4) We were buried therefore with Him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. (5) For if we have been united with Him in death like His, we shall certainly be united with Him in a resurrection like His. (6) We know that our old self was crucified with Him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. (7) For one who has died has been set free from sin. (8) Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him. (9) We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. (10) For the death He died He died to sin, once for all, but the life He lives He lives to God. (11) So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (12) Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. (13) Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. (14) For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. *

TAKING IT HOME...

In the midst of the circumstances of our lives (hard or easy) each of us makes choices of how we will respond. Think about the choices you make each day. Do those choices draw you closer to God and what He has for you life or do they take you farther from Him?

The most important choice you can make is to accept God's gracious offer of forgiveness for your sins and to trust Jesus as your Savior. If you would like more information about what that may mean for you there is helpful information at: www.muncherian.com/p-know.html or please contact us.

Growing in your relationship with God also involves daily choices. What, or whom, do you need to let go of and what, or whom do you need to embrace (focus on) that will help you move closer to God?

Another choice is to share Jesus with others. Pray that God will give you the opportunities, boldness, and words to share His gospel.
