1. What insight, principle, or observation from this message did you find to be the most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling? Explain.
2. Have you ever had to begin again? If so, please share your new beginning experience with the group.
3. How does verse 2 describe a new beginning for God's people? (Note: Hebrew Calendar: www.muncherian.com/HebrewCalendar.pdf)
4. What might that new beginning have been like for them?
5. How do the following verses describe new beginnings?
 - John 3:16,17
 - Romans 6:1-4
 - Philippians 3:13,14
 - Revelation 21:5
6. What could each of these descriptions mean for you?
7. Exodus chapters 7-12 (the plagues and Passover) describe some of what God has done to establish the basis of the new beginning for His people. Is there any thing that God has done that particularly impresses you? (The Ten Plagues: www.muncherian.com/TheTenPlagues.pdf)

8. What can all of what God has done (question #7) tell us about God?

9. What can all of what God has done for His people tell us about how God feels about His people?

10. What can all of what God has done for His people tell us about how God feels about us?

11. Why do you think the Egyptians had so many gods?

12. Do any of these gods seem especially weird or foolish?

13. Do you think that people today have similar needs and attitudes?

14. What significance could these gods of today have for you?

15. In the plagues, God's people saw God's sovereignty and holiness displayed. In the Passover meal they needed to trust God. These were valuable lessons about God, our need for God, and the importance of trusting God with our lives. As Christians we know this. Why do you think it is so hard for us to keep living according to the lessons we've learned about God?

16. In verse 13, what is the sign and who is the sign for?

17. What is so significant about the sign?

18. What could it mean for you to have the blood of the Lamb applied to your life?
