4. What does this passage show you about God?
5. What does this passage show you about Moses?
6. What does this passage mean for your life today?

Extra Credit:

Read & consider 1 Corinthians 1:27-31.

1. What does this passage show you about how God operates?
2. Thinking through Scripture what are some examples that illustrate what Paul is writing about?
3. What difference will knowing this make in your life?

Read & consider Psalm 139:13-16 and Ephesians 2:10.

1. What do these verses tell you about your relationship with God?
2. What has God uniquely created and called you to? (Admittedly, that may be a tough question to answer. If you're not sure what God has uniquely created and called you to, how might you search out the answer?)
3. These days, is it easy or hard to see yourself as uniquely created and called by God? Why or why not?
4. How can we as a group help you understand the uniqueness of what God has created you for and what that might look like?
5. How can we as a group help you to live out God's unique purposes for your life?
