God Affirming His Covenant 17:1-8

1. God once again affirms His covenant with Abram. It what ways does He do this?
2. What does this show you about God?
3. How does Hebrews 10:14 describe our position before God and what it means to walk blamelessly before Him each day of our lives?
4. These days, what does it mean for you to walk before God and be blameless?

God Illustrating His Covenant 17:9-14

5. How does God illustrate His covenant?
6. What does this show you about God?
7. How is circumcision an illustration of our relationship with God?
8. What is Paul's warning in Philippians 3:2,3? In Paul's day, what did this mean?
9. How might Paul's warning apply to your life today?

God Defining His Covenant 17:15-22

10. What new information does God share with Abraham?
11. Have you ever experienced being overwhelmed by God? What were the circumstances? What was that like for you? How was your faith in God strengthened?

God's Covenant - Abraham's Response 17:23-27

12. How did Abraham respond to what God commanded Him to do?
13. How was Abraham's response an act of faith?
14. These days, does Abraham's response encourage or challenge you (or both)?

Processing all that...

15. Read Psalm 121. In the tasks and pressures that lie ahead of you this week, what in Psalm 121 would you like to marinate in that will help you to step forward in faith trusting God?
16. This week, how can we as a group help each other to live by what we're being shown here in chapter 17?
